Mike's Minute

For I am full of words, and the spirit within me compels me.

Job 32:18

God wants us to live a life compelled by His Spirit. When the Spirit within us says yes, we are obligated to follow His lead.

It may interfere with our comfort. It may interrupt our plans. It may cause us to say no to other opportunities. It may cause us to sacrifice. No matter. We follow His lead.

If we are compelled to speak, then we speak with grace and boldness. If we are compelled to teach, we teach with accuracy and relevance. If it is to speak a good word for Jesus, we do so with love and acceptance. If it is to mentor others, we mentor with humility and wisdom.

What is the Spirit compelling you to do? How is He prompting you to love and serve Him and others?

What compels others may not compel you. Fine. What compels you may not compel others. Also, fine. What others think of you is none of your business.

Assess your talents. How can you use them for ministry inside the church and missions outside the church?

Answering that question and acting on the answer will prove to be a tremendous blessing to both you and those around you.

In Christian Love,

Mike

Just Joshin'

It feels as if "confidence" is, sometimes, one of our great struggles as people. This is a glaring issue that can be seen in many facets of life. Lack of confidence can hinder our careers, our relationships, and it can even impact our faith. Thankfully, we have an entire Bible that is full of motivation. David writes in Psalm 27:3, "Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet I will be confident." Now, I understand that we might not always be fighting physical battles or have soldiers from foreign lands invade our home, but we do fight spiritual and mental battles every day. It might seem like you've engaged in an unwinnable war, but we can know that God is always in control. We will never find true confidence if we rely solely upon ourselves. Much like David, he never could have had that confidence if he didn't know that God was with him every step. The confidence that we find in the Lord is a real life superpower. We can approach every obstacle with the assurance that, one way or the other, God's will is going to be done and we'll be exactly where He needs us!

To God be the glory,
Josh

Thank you so much for the beautiful candle that I received during the loss of our dear mother. Also, thank you for the visits, calls, cards and most of all prayers.

In Christian Love,
Teresa Perry

From the Elders 2026

Philippians 3:13-14

Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Things our Field family achieved in the year 2025 is as follows:

1. We had 6 baptisms into Christ at church
2. There were 35 Jail Ministry baptisms
3. We added 2 new elders, Ronny Pitman and Randal Halbrooks
4. We had the 3rd annual Fall Festival, which was a success
5. We added 14 new members
6. Missions donated to team Rubicon, Church of Christ Disaster Relief Fund, Magi boxes, donated school supplies, helped with local children's Christmas, helped distribute bags of groceries from Chappell's, and raised money for the AES victims
7. We have been fortunate enough to keep the buildings and grounds updated
8. We have reached several people through Facebook live
9. We are thankful to have blessed our members and community with the fellowship hall

A special thank you to our Pulpit Minister Mike Kelley, Associate Minister Josh Copley, Youth Minister Chris Wright, all our staff, members, Deacons and visitors.

Philippians 4:13

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

The Elders,

Randal Halbrooks, Ronny Pitman, Wayne Prince, Lafayette Spears, and Gary Wright

Christian's Resolutions

What is the point of New Year's resolutions? Good question. Isn't it meant to encourage us to do things that will make our lives better? The fact that we make a resolution implies that some part of our lives needs improving. The resolution itself indicates we are failing in some respects.

Christianity is constantly asking you to improve your life. We are encouraged to "set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth." (How's that for a New Year's Resolution?). To "put to death" earthly things such as "sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, covetousness...anger, wrath, malice, slander and obscene talk from your mouth" (Colossians 3:2-8).

Paul's resolution of "forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead" (Philippians 3:13) is an encouragement to look forward to ways to improve our lives in Christ and to prepare for our own resurrection. A resolution to lose weight pales in comparison to Peter's challenge to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 3:18). This year, make some spiritual, life-changing, meaningful New Year's Resolutions!

Good Reason for Quiet Children

A mother was having a difficult time getting her young son to be quiet during the preaching. Finally, she leaned over and whispered something to him. From that point on he sat still and was quiet as a mouse. A person who had observed this asked the mother after services if she would share what she had told her young son in order to get him to behave the way he did. She said, "I told him he was disturbing the preacher and if he lost his place in his lesson, he would have to start all over again."

Like Father, Like Son

A father, mother, and their three sons, John (the oldest), Mike (middle), and Steve (youngest), were conversing around the table after dinner.

The subject of traits of parents being passed on to children came up.

The father said, "John has my eyes, Mike has my creativity, and Steve has my intelligence."

Steve responded, "Daddy, what's intelligence?"
